Mr. Yan Hao is the Chairman of Stanford Club of South China, and the managing partner of JunZeJun Law Offices. Mr. Yan's main practice areas are intellectual property (IP), major civil and commercial litigation, arbitration and dispute resolution, venture capital investment and other legal affairs.

Mr. Yan's practice covers a wide range of contentious, non-contentious, commercial IP, computer, Internet and hi-tech legal matters, and China-related business transactions. He has extensive experiences in aforementioned areas, and is particularly good at advising and handling large and complex IP enforcement and litigation in China. Some landmark cases he acted for are reorganized as Top 10 IP case by Supreme People's Court and Guangdong Higher People's Court. He has been listed many times as Asian Leading IP Lawyer by international authoritative journals such as Chambers and Partners, Asian Law and Chinese Law & Practice.

Mr. Yan has studied and worked in Hong Kong for 18 years. He had worked at Baker & McKenzie and Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer LLP. Mr. Yan obtained his LLB from Wuhan University, and furthered his study of LLM in the Faculty of Law of the University of Hong Kong and Law School of Stanford University. He is an arbitrator of WIPO, Hong Kong International Arbitration Center (HKIAC), Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration (SCIA), Guangzhou Arbitration Committee (GAC) and a panelist of Asian Domain Name Dispute Resolution Centre (ADNDRC).
