

CURRICULUM VITAE*Name*Yana Zhou*Educational and Professional Qualifications

2006 – 2010: University of Sydney, Bachelor of Science (Psychology) and Bachelor of Laws (LLB)
2010: University of Cambridge, Advanced Obligations and Remedies, Sydney Law School in Europe
2013 – 2016: University of London, Masters of Law (LLM)
Admitted to Practice Republic of Ireland (September 2018 – present)
Solicitor of the Senior Courts of England and Wales (May 2015 – present)
Admitted to Practice NSW, Australia (May 2012 – present)
Registered Trade Marks Attorney (Australia) (February 2014 – present)

Languages

English and Chinese

Experience with respect to IP / domain names

2013 – present: IP Solicitor / Trade Mark Attorney at Stobbs, advising on all aspects of trade marks, design, copyright, domain name and company name issues for clients across a range of industry sectors.
2012 – 2013: Legal Case Manager at Arbitration and Mediation Center, WIPO, administered disputes under different forms of expedited alternative dispute resolution mechanisms (over 300 disputes managed).
2010 – 2011: Trade Mark Examiner at IP Australia, granted registrations and/or raised citations for over 500 trade mark applications.
I also regularly contribute to industry publications, including CITMA Review and International Review of Intellectual Property and Competition Law.

Membership in professional bodies

Member of the Law Society of England and Wales
Allied Member of the Chartered Institute of Trade Mark Attorneys (CITMA)
Member of AIPPI (International Association for the Protection of Intellectual Property) Member of Marques

Nationalities

Australian and British